My personal Story

I'm Némo Rase, born on February 24, 2005, in Brussels. Since 2020, I've been dedicated to the sport that fuels my passion and purpose—athletics. Specializing in high hurdles (60m & 110m), I've progressed rapidly, driven by an unrelenting commitment to excellence and a desire to break barriers.

In 2023, I had the honor of being selected for the prestigious Be Gold program, which supports Belgium's most promising athletes with one shared goal: competing at the Olympic Games. This recognition fuels my ambition to represent Belgium on the global stage, and every hurdle I clear brings me closer to that ultimate vision—the Los Angeles 2028 Olympics before Brisbane 2032.

While athletics is my core focus, I've also embarked on studies in Physiotherapy, a field that complements my career by deepening my understanding of physical resilience and injury prevention—crucial components for long-term success. This dual pursuit shapes me not only as an athlete but as someone committed to the science of performance and well-being.

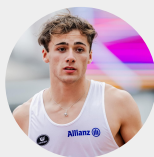

My journey has been defined by resilience, discipline, and the relentless pursuit of my goals. Representing Belgium internationally, I've been privileged to earn a silver medal and set national U20 records, achievements that underscore my commitment to my country and my sport. But this path forward requires even greater support and the belief of partners who value ambition, perseverance, and the transformative power of sports.

Together with dedicated sponsors, I am confident that I can not only reach my athletic goals but also bring visibility and pride to those who support me. Let's build a partnership grounded in excellence, shared values, and the drive to achieve greatness on the Olympic stage.

Future goals and vision

My primary objective is to compete in the Los Angeles 2028 Olympics, and this vision is at the core of every training session, competition, and sponsorship request I make. The journey to the Olympics requires years of focused preparation, from building strength and technique to gaining experience against top international competitors. Each step I take now is carefully planned to prepare me for the intensity of the Olympic stage, and I am seeking partners who can help fuel this long-term vision. Together, we can build a path to 2028, making each milestone—from European Championships to international meets—a crucial stepping stone on the way to Olympic success.

In addition to my focus on the Los Angeles 2028 Olympics, I am deeply committed to personal and professional growth in all areas of my life. As an athlete, I'm constantly pushing to elevate my performance and reach new levels of skill and resilience. But my journey extends beyond the track—I'm equally dedicated to developing as a public figure who connects meaningfully with fans and supporters. Through social media, I aim to share my experiences and insights, creating an inspiring platform for others who share my passion for sports and excellence.

Furthermore, I see my role as a young athlete as an opportunity to positively impact society. I aspire to use my growing platform to engage with the broader community, promoting values like discipline, perseverance, and ambition that resonate beyond athletics. By cultivating relationships with partners who share these ideals, I hope to inspire, connect, and contribute to a broader purpose, making every step toward the Olympics part of a journey that uplifts both my supporters and my community.

Partnership opportunities

With the support of dedicated sponsors, I am confident that I can not only reach my goals but also bring visibility to those who believe in me.
